

THEY HATE FOREIGNERS.

Cause of the Shooting of a German Major by Chinese.

Vancouver, B. C. July 1.—Further details have been received of the shooting of Major Krause, the German drill instructor, by Chinese troopers. The shooting occurred while Krause was drilling his Chinese troops on ground especially allotted to the bodyguard of Viceroy Huanan at Nanking. He was ordered to stop by Captain Huanan of the troopers. Krause refused. Hot words were exchanged and the Chinese Captain commanded his men to fire on the "foreign drilled soldiers."

The troopers promptly responded, a volley being fired at about fifty yards. Probably a score of Chinese soldiers under Krause were killed. The German officer received a bullet in the body and may die. Before the volley was fired his soldiers prayed him on their knees to retire, as they would all be killed. The shooting was caused by the jealousy of the Chinese soldiery toward foreign interference.

Immediately on word being received the German cruiser Princess Wilhelm left Woosung for the scene of the shooting. The war ship went ashore on her way and much delay was caused in getting her off. The German Minister will demand a searching investigation. A statement to the effect that the affair was a deliberately planned attempt at murder was published, but the above account is most generally accepted.

CRETE'S COURSE APPROVED.

Greek Sympathies With the Troubled Island.

ATHENS, July 1.—The most enthusiastic approval is expressed here at the refusal of the Cretan deputies to assemble, falling to secure the guarantee of the powers of liberty of speech and person. Much satisfaction also is expressed at the proclamation issued by the revolutionary assembly at Vamou, calling on the people to send representatives for the establishment of a revolutionary government. This step is considered to be a final answer to the Porte.

Two more steamers have been chartered to carry ammunition to the insurgents.

Replying today to the Turkish Minister, relative to the dispatch of supplies and volunteers to the island of Crete, the Government has declared that the communication with foreign countries being free, they could not prevent the departures. The Cretan insurgents have adopted as a flag the Hellenic colors with an eagle in the center.

There seems to be some blight affecting the bloom of the beautiful Punciana Regia this season, for of all the trees in the city but few have blossoms enough to attract attention. The one on Hotel street next to the Arlington is a notable exception, and in consequence is a source of wonder and delight to visitors who have never before seen this tree in bloom. King Bros. have made several excellent sketches in oil and water colors of this subject, which are meeting with ready sale.
